

Richard Leon BONIN

Créé le : 2005-01-27

Nom : BONIN

Père : Richard L Bonin

Date de décès : 2005-01-27

Conjoint(e)(s) : Karen Weir

Prénom : Richard Leon

Mère : Carole A Freeman

Date de parution : 2005-02-01

Paru dans : Boston Herald, MA, US

Richard Leon Bonin Jr. of Attleboro, a truck driver, died Thursday at Miriam Hospital in Providence. He was 47. Born in Medford, Mr. Bonin was raised and educated in Attleboro, graduating from Attleboro High School. He was an independent truck driver for the past five years, previously working as an auto mechanic. A one-time student of the ministry, Mr. Bonin enjoyed motorcycling and horseback riding. He is survived by his former wife, Karen (Weir) Palmer of Attleboro; three sons, James M. of Fort Benning, Ga., Luke E. of Fort Lewis, Wash., and Brendon of Rayne, La.; a daughter, Sarah of Smyrna, Ga., his parents, Richard L. Sr. and Carole A. (Freeman), both of Attleboro; three brothers, Michael E., Timothy J. and Thomas J. Mendes, all of Attleboro; three sisters, Sandra E. of South Attleboro, Brenda L. Wilkinson of West Virginia and Kathleen M. St. Pierre of Attleboro; and many nieces and nephews. A funeral service was held yesterday at Dyer-Lake Funeral Home, Attleboro Falls. Burial was in North Purchase Cemetery, Attleboro.