WYOMING, Del. -- Raymond H. Bonin, 91, a resident of Wyoming and formerly of Long Beach, Miss., and Lowell, died Saturday, May 14, at the Capitol Health Care Nursing Home in Dover. He was the husband of the late Cecile M. (Morrissette) Bonin and Jean (Stewart) Bonin. He was born in Springfield, Mass., on Jan. 14, 1914, son of the late Joseph R. and Angeline (Peloquin) Bonin. Mr. Bonin served in the Navy during World War II. He worked as a pipe fitter for Merrimack Mills, Raytheon Co., and Lowell General Hospital before retiring in 1978. While a resident of Lowell's Centralville, Mr. Bonin was a communicant of the former St. Louis de France Church, and was a former member of the Lowell Lodge of Elks, the Salem-Derry Lodge of Elks and the Dracut Senior Citizens. In 1984, Mr. Bonin moved to Long Beach, Miss., and was a communicant of St. Mary Church there. He was also a member of the Long Beach Yacht Club and the Gulf Coast Jazz Society. Mr. Bonin had been a resident of Wyoming since 2000. His survivors include a son and daughter-in-law, Senior Master Sgt. Richard R. Bonin Sr. and Blanche Y. Bonin, of Biloxi, Miss.; a daughter and son-in-law, Elaine M. and Richard B. Woten of Wyoming; seven grandchildren, Elaine L. Geiser, Deborah A. Barron, Richard R. Bonin Jr., Joseph P. Bonin, Master Sgt. Lisa M. Poss, Sharon P. Spruill and Cindy M. Foskey; 16 great-grandchildren; and a great-grandchild. He was also the brother of the late Robert and Albert Bonin.
