

Joseph Daigneault

Joseph Daigneault, 83, formerly of Hartford Avenue, died yesterday after a long illness. He had been employed as a stationary engineer in various buildings in Providence for 30 years until his retirement.

Born in Weedon, Canada, June 30, 1887, a son of the late Eusebe and Amanda V. (Dechamps) Daigneault, he came to this country at an early age. He had lived in the Thornton area for 35 years, and the last 15 years in the Olneyville section. He was the husband of the late Marie (Bonin) Daigneault.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Albert McCurdy of Johnston; three sons, Arthur and Phillip R., both of Johnston, and Francis H. Daigneault of Warwick; 10 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. from the J. F. Skeffington Chapel, 925 Chalkstone Ave., with a requiem Mass in St. Teresa's Church, Manton Avenue, at 10. Burial will be in St. Ann's Cemetery, Cranston.
