

Germaine Marie Brault, 80, of Newport died on July 25, 2010.

She was born on August 9, 1929, in St. Jean de Matha, Quebec, a daughter of Leopold and Edouilda (St. Georges) Bonin.

Mrs. Brault and her family immigrated to Troy in 1946. In 1949 she married Marc-Aurele Brault, also of St. Jean de Matha. They moved to Connecticut shortly after to find work and raise their family.

Mrs. Brault worked as a seamstress out of her home for several years and later worked in a number of factories. Later in life, she worked as a live-in nanny in East Hartford, Connecticut, taking care of two children. In 1986, she moved back to Newport and worked as a live-in caretaker for a few years.

She enjoyed music, doing word search puzzles, and watching Animal Planet. She loved looking at books of animals.

She is survived by three daughters: Madeline Quirion and her husband, Norman, of Newport Center, Fran Sicotte and her husband, Reynold, of Newport, and Irene Daigle of Georgia; by seven grandchildren: Christine Quirion and her husband, Christopher Rosol, of Cambridge, Massachusetts, Karen Lane and her husband, Jonathan, of New Britain, Connecticut, Matthew Sicotte and his wife, Margaret, of Georgia, Corey Sicotte and his wife, Jessica, of Derby, Stephanie Sicotte and her fiancé, Daniel Higgins, of Newport, Emily Daigle and Erin Daigle, both from Georgia; by two great-grandchildren: Aubrey Sicotte of Derby and Claire Sicotte of Georgia; by sister-in-law Marielle Bonin of Orleans; and by nieces and nephews in Vermont, Connecticut, and Quebec. She was predeceased by her husband, Marc-Aurele, in 1981; her brother Germaine Bonin of Orleans; her sister Yvette Lavarrierre of East Hartford; and by her son-in-law Paul Daigle of Georgia.
