

Boylston-Doris O. (Bonin) Nason, 96, of Mile Hill Rd, died Monday, June 15, 2009 at UMass Memorial Healthcare-University Campus in Worcester after a brief illness. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband of thirty six years, Frederick C. Nason, who died in 1972. She is survived by four loving sons, Paul C. Nason of Worcester; David L. Nason and his wife Kathrine of Hanson; Richard A. Nason, with whom she lived; and Steven R. Nason and his wife Gail of Boylston. She leaves her sister-in-law, Elinor Bonin of North Grafton; eight grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and many dear friends, especially Barbara Smith of Boylston. She is preceded in death by her ten siblings. Doris was born in Worcester to the late Louis N. and Julia (LaPointe) Bonin. She was raised in North Grafton and attended local schools.