

Dec. 3, 1921 - March 16, 2005

Annette M. "Meme" Thurlo, 83, of Benicia, passed away Wednesday at her home after a long illness. She was born in Haverhill, Massachusetts and was a Benicia resident since 1967.

She worked in the cafeteria at Benicia High School for more than 10 years before retiring in 1982.

She was a longtime member of St. Dominic's Church, enjoyed traveling and loved her grandchildren.

Survivors include her children, Kathleen Valentine of Benicia, Cecelia Reimann of Colorado, Jean Book of Benicia, Marion DeLay of Utah, Joan Cummings of Oklahoma, Janice Nichols of New Hampshire and Denise Crossman of Hopland; sons, George Jr. of New Hampshire, Stephen and Timothy of Utah, Alfred of Benicia, Christopher of Suisun and Phillip of Anderson; sister Eleanor Wheeler of New Hampshire; and brother Raymond Bonin of Washington DC; 29 grandchildren and 31 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband George A. Thurlo Sr. in 1997 and son Donald Thurlo in 1997.

Funeral services will be held 11 a.m. Friday at Passalacqua Funeral Chapel, Benicia. Inurnment will be private at St. Dominic's Cemetery, Benicia.

Visitation will be at the mortuary after 9 a.m. Friday.

Published in TimesHeraldOnline on Mar. 17, 2005