

Napoleon A. Bonin

Napoleon A. "Nappy" Bonin, 85, of 9 Plaistow, N.H., died Saturday at Hale Hospital. Born and educated in Haverhill, where he lived until 1987, Mr. Bonin worked as an engineering associate for AT&T for 34 years, retiring in 1980.

Mr. Bonin served in the Navy as a Machinist Mate 1st Class during World War II. He was a member of Holy Angels Parish and its choir, the Telephone Pioneers of America, the former St. Joseph Parish and its choir and Holy Name Society, and the Elks Glee Club. He enjoyed woodworking, furniture-making and golfing in several local leagues.

He leaves his wife of 59 years, C. Yvonne (Bouchard) Bonin; daughter Ann-Marie and husband Paul

McEwen of Bedford, Texas; sons and their wives Roger and Frances, and Gerald and Sandra all of

Haverhill, Leonard and Lucille of Atkinson, N.H., David and Carol of Lawrence and Peter and Constance of Hampstead, N.H.; brother Raymond of Westminster, Md.; sisters Annette Thurlo of

Benicia, Calif., and Eleanor Wheeler of Plaistow; 12 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and nieces and nephews.

His funeral was Wednesday in Holy Angels Church. Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Arrangements were by Brookside Chapel & Funeral Home, Plaistow.

Memorials may be made to Holy Angels Parish Food Pantry, Atkinson Depot Road, Plaistow NH 03865.

- Published August 1, 2001